Executive Summary

Education Consultancy Association of Nepal (ECAN) is the umbrella organization of consultancy institutions in Nepal that facilitate students to go abroad for higher studies. Students have specific choice for universities and courses round the globe and when their exams are over they are always in need of guidance to choose from hundreds of courses that suits their purpose and interest. Finding universities and courses that is appropriate for a student has always been a challenge as the websites are alone not sufficient in providing information and the aspirants along with the guardians are in seek for better options. This is where counseling is required and ECAN comes into action which has the largest network of educational consultancies and has been providing with clear, concise information to guardians and students regarding abroad education since a long time now. For past one decade ECAN has been conducting education fair at Bhrikuti Mandap and this year as well in its 9th Mega Education Fair to be held in the month of July (2-5), ECAN has planned to interact with students and guardians regarding studying abroad.
